Mr. J. J. FRANCIS, Q.C.—It seems to me, sir

If any one has anything to put forward let it be put in a formal shape writing and get it finally proposed and seconded As I understand we are simply listening to sug gestions as to the shape the resolution to b ultimately put before the meeting should take. I think for the purpose of this meeting the lest three or four resolutions passed at the ther and would have the assistance of the last meeting stand, that is, that Her Majesty's Jubilee be celebrated, that the celebration take place on the 9th November, that there be a fete and general rejoicings, and that there be some permanent memorial in commemoration of the occasion. The only question we are here to day to consider is what form the permanent memoria should take. I myself, although it hardly seems the sense of the community is with me, am still very strongly in favour of the British, Indian and Colonial Institute, and for this reason-I ventured to address you before; at the former meeting, with reference to that, and I would urge you again to take it into considerationthat this is the particular thing which Her Majesty herself desires. What we are doing, or attempting to do on this occasion, is to celebrate what in Her Majesty's life is a very that will be pleasing to Her Majesty, something which will give her pleasure as well as serve as a commemoration of this event. Her tion took place. M. Mr. FEASER-SMITH-I beg pardon, you are not. You are putting a substantive resolution of quite a different character. Mr. Francis said this was merely a preparatory resolution. If it was rejected, it would be clear the sense of the meeting was against Dr. Manson's proposal, but if it was

The propor course would be to move the direct question of an adjournment and allow the proposer and seconder of Dr Manson's scheme to get the details. BISHOP BURDON-May I say a few words i I have very grave doubts whether any public meeting gathered here is ever likely to come to any definite resolution. I would propose that a representative Committee should be appointed, a large Committee but not larger say than a dozen, if so large, for the purpose of collecting not only all the probable schemes that might be proposed but all the details conconsidered in Committee another public meeting should be called to determine which scheme should be accepted. There are only two or three schemes that are likely to come before it. One is Dr. Manson's, another the Victoria Institute, and I don't know that there is more than one in addition which is likely to be proposed, say, an institution for female education. These three schemes, I think, are all that have been proposed with the exception of a statue of the Queen. Might not a manageable Committee be appointed to consider these different schemes and draw up plans, estimates of the cost, and everything connected with them, and come here to an other public meeting prepared with certain data on which the public meeting could decide. The bankrupts commenced business in August, 1884, without funds or tools. POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.

the Post in Tins are requested to have them made flat or square instead of round, as it is impossible to pack round tins securely in the mail bags. It is believed that the ten will travel more safely in flat tins, which are not so liable as round ones to be bulged in. 4 by 3 by 11 inches is suggested as a good mize. The tins should not have sharp corners.
